Dear Applicant,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been admitted by the Academic Committee on Admissions of Wageningen University to the MSc Programme Aquaculture and Marine Resource Management, which starts in September 2015.

The study load of the MSc programme is 120 ECTS [1)] credits. This is the equivalent of two academic years. You will compose your definite study programme in consultation with your study advisor, after arrival in the Netherlands. The main aspects of your study programme and the planning of the education will be laid down in a 'Study Contract' at the beginning of your study. This may imply that there are restrictions to the specialisation or track that you can follow within the programme.

You may contact the study advisor of your MSc programme if needed.
You [2)] are kindly requested to confirm your participation in the MSc programme by completing the confirmation form in STARS. Please log on using your STARS username and password.

With regard to the funding of your study, please indicate on the confirmation form the name and address of your sponsor or whether you will pay for your studies yourself. Upon receipt of this information, the Student Service Centre (SSC) will contact you or your sponsor to arrange the financial matters regarding your study at Wageningen University.

1) ECTS = European Credit Transfer System. One ECTS credit equals 28 hours of education/study.
2) Not applicable to Dutch nationals.
